

Norman C. Morrison
September 17, 1919 ~ February 11, 2005

Morrison, Norman Carlton

Quietly, at the age of 85, in the hospital in Rochester, Minnesota on February 11, 2005, after successfully holding back cancer for fifteen years.

Norm, after raising a family during a successful career at Federated Mutual Insurance Company from 1950-83, managed a busy retirement during his last quarter-century with Betty, his third wife, traveling extensively, both for pleasure and to pursue their hobby of genealogy; volunteering; in service clubs, hospice and insurance advice for seniors in his retirement home in North Carolina and, finally, returning to Minnesota to set up house, volunteer and finish his battle with cancer.

Norman, son of Carl David Morrison and Marie Starr of Connecticut, is survived by wife Betty (nee Gold); children, Douglas (Jake), Carol, David and Robert; grandchildren, Sean, Caroline, Michael, Joseph, Margaret, Benjamin, Jasmine and Oscar; step-grandchildren, Ronald III, Sarah, Jeffrey Jr., Mitchell and Jonathan. He was predeceased by his first wife Mildred (nee Perkins, of Chester, South Carolina) and second wife Margaret (nee Wing, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin). He has been a loving grandfather to both his and Betty's grandchildren. His love of life and learning have been an example to us all.
